In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, the evidence submitted at the hearing, and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Skyler Thomas Rice is a 22 year old male born in Austin, Texas.
2. Rice resides with his father and his brother, co-defendant Ian Charles-Tyler Rice. He has no property and has no significant financial ties to the community.
3. Rice has one brother and father living in the Houston area. He is engaged to Brittany Ryan Davis, a co-defendant in the indictment, who lives in the Houston area.
4. Rice poses a flight risk in view of his lack of significant financial ties to the community.
5. Rice is charged with conspiracy, making a firearm, possession of an unregistered firearm, and possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. He faces a penalty range of up to ten years confinement. The making a firearm charge involved the construction of an explosive device. Rice's criminal history includes two felony convictions while a juvenile, felony drug conviction, conviction for evading arrest, and two misdemeanor theft convictions. In total, he has been charged with ten felonies and fifteen misdemeanors. He also has an extensive history of drug usage and mental health disorders.
6. Jones poses a danger to the community in view of his lengthy and continuing criminal history, and the violent nature of the charged offenses.
7. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
